

BIRKMAN MAP

TANNER SULLIVAN

The Symbols on your Birkman Map identify who you are on two key dimensions. The placement of the symbol within a color quadrant represents the degree to which you display similarities to that color quadrant. The left and the right sides of the map (horizontal axis) represent your preference for dealing with tasks or people. The top and the bottom (vertical axis) represent whether you are more extroverted or introverted in your style.

INTERESTS - The Asterisk represents what you like to do and where you gravitate in terms of activities you enjoy.

USUAL BEHAVIOR - The Diamond represents how you usually behave. These are your strengths, and they compose your best, most productive style. This is how other people see you. Usual Behavior is how you act when your Needs have been met.

NEEDS - The Circle represents how you need to be or expect to be treated by other people and your environment. Needs often remain hidden or invisible to others.

STRESS BEHAVIOR - The Square represents your frustrated behavior. This is your reactive, unproductive style. Stress Behavior is how you act when your Needs have not been met for an extended period of time. You may see some of the challenges you face arise here.
